

LABORATORY SHUTDOWN DURING HOLIDAY SEASON

Please note that the laboratory will be closed from Wednesday 24th December until Monday 5th January. As such, we are unable to accept samples between these two dates.

Please remember that turnaround times are quoted as full working days. Bank Holidays and the weekdays between 25th December and 2nd January are not regarded as working days. If samples are undergoing analysis, or you are thinking of sending samples during these dates please contact your Programme Manager listed on your quotation for an estimated report date.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish our customers

Seasons Greetings

And a Happy New Year

From all the staff at AMEC's Laboratory Services
